

Representative Cases for R.A. Carrington, Esq.

Employment

- Plaintiff's claimed car dealership employees sexually harassed them causing plaintiff's to suffer emotional distress. Case settled for six figures
- Plaintiff claimed financial institution improperly fired him. Defendant claimed plaintiff lied in his job application and failed to follow institution procedures when counting money. Case settled for a confidential sum.

Medical Negligence

- Parents claimed hospital and doctor negligently delivered their baby, causing permanent injuries. Case settled for $750,000.
- New born burned when microwave towel fell into the bassinet. Case settled for confidential sum.

Premises/Personal Injury

- Plaintiff, member of U.S. Navy was returning to his wife's hospital room after she delivered their third child. He did a deep knee bend the hospital elevator. Handrail failed and plaintiff fell and injured his back. Case settled for $850,000
- Plaintiff fell through a construction hole at work. Claimed contractor failed to properly identify the hole. Case settled for 1.8 million
- Plaintiff was rear-ended. Impact was minor. Plaintiff was driving his employer's car. It did not have a headrest. Defendant driver only had $15,000.00 of insurance. Workers compensation benefits and future benefits totaled in excess of 2 million dollars because of brain injury. Plaintiff sued car manufacture that settled for 1.3 million. Worker's comp agreed to waive lien and to pay plaintiff another 1 million.

Family

- Mother claimed son cheated her out of her interest in the family home. Case settled for a confidential sum.

1851 E. First Street
Suite 1450
Santa Ana, CA 92705
Phone: (800) 488-8805
Fax: (714) 834-1344

Results Beyond DisputeSM

www.judicategwest.com

Real Estate

- Seller cancelled escrow regarding a four plex. Case settled for 2.4 million.