

Jill R. Sperber, Esq.

Alternative Dispute Resolution
Results Beyond DisputeSM

Jill started her mediation career in 2010 while litigating at Irell & Manella. She was asked to be part of the firm's Alternative Dispute Center where she was selected as a co-arbitrator, mediator, co-mediator, and special master on complex matters. Prior to that, she was a civil litigator handling commercial and civil matters in state and federal courts. Since joining Judicate West in 2014, with her combined experience, Jill has mediated over 1,500 cases including business, consumer, privacy, financial services, employment, entertainment, intellectual property, insurance, antitrust, and tort matters involving single and multiple parties as well as class and collective actions. Jill's depth of experience, intelligence, and impressive skills are just a few reasons why she has earned a coveted spot on many law firms' list of 'go to' mediators. Thoroughly prepared for every matter, she also has a unique, pragmatic style and is known for creating out-of-the-box strategies to resolve cases where the parties never thought the settlement was possible. She is known for her balance of candor and compassion, tireless/persistent work ethic, and commitment to the process resulting in a "velvet hammer" touch.
