

Robert N. Dobbins, LLM, Esq.

Rob is an accomplished Mediator and Arbitrator with over two decades of experience. Rob has mediated several thousand matters, the majority of which has been as a Judicate West Neutral. His practice as a neutral has evolved to focus on medical negligence and elder abuse matters, following his mentorship under Master Mediator/Arbitrator Jay Cordell Horton. Through this collaboration, they have co-mediated more than 100 cases in these specialized areas. Rob also brings extensive experience in major injury cases and a broad range of complex business/commercial, real estate, employment, and financial institution matters. He is known for his patience, tenacity, insight, and ability to establish a connection with all parties, which has been key to achieving favorable resolutions in even the most challenging cases.

	challenging cases.
LEGAL CAREER & PRIOR EXPERIENCE	<ul> <li>Neutral, Judicate West (2007-Present)</li> <li>Mediator/Arbitrator (2002-Present)</li> <li>Adjunct Faculty, University of California, Berkeley Law School (Boalt Hall) (2014- Present)</li> <li>Adjunct Professor, Center for Negotiation &amp; Dispute Resolution, Univ. of California, Hastings Law School (2005-Present)</li> <li>Adjunct Professor, Straus Institute For Dispute Resolution, Pepperdine University Law School (2002-Present)</li> <li>Adjunct Professor, Pepperdine University, Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution Undergraduate Dispute Resolution Certificate Program (2003-Present)</li> <li>Judge Pro Tempore and Settlement Officer, Orange County Superior Court (1985- 2002)</li> <li>Attorney, Private Practice with an emphasis on major injury and death, real property litigation and transactions, business litigation, counseling, transactions; probate, trusts, estates litigation; employment litigation; Consumer Legal Remedies Act, Magnusson-Moss, Unruh Act litigation (1978-2002)</li> </ul>
EDUCATION & PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS	<ul> <li>LL.M. Dispute Resolution, Straus Institute For Dispute Resolution, Pepperdine Law School (2003)</li> <li>Master of Dispute Resolution, Straus Institute For Dispute Resolution, Pepperdine Law School (2001)</li> <li>J.D. Southwestern University School of Law (SCALE Program) (1978)</li> <li>B.S., Boston University, School of Communication (1975)</li> <li>Program Faculty &amp; Moderator, Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution, Pepperdine Law, "Mediating the Litigated Case"</li> <li>Panel Moderator, Hispanic Bar Association "Cuba-America Legal Exchange, Havana, Cuba": "Preparing Your Case for Settlement in Mediation"</li> <li>Program Faulty/Trainer, International Trademark Association, Mediation Continuing Education</li> <li>Advanced Training, Nevada Supreme Court "Settlement Judges": "How 'Who You Are' as Mediator May Affect Your Ethical Duties in Mediation"</li> <li>Special Counsel and founding member, Friends of Bear Paw, Big Hole &amp; Canyon Creek Battlefields</li> </ul>
PRACTICE AREAS	Catastrophic Injury; Complex Business/Commercial; Elder Abuse; Medical Negligence; Real Estate; Trust/Estates

ACHIEVEMENTS & AWARDS	<ul> <li>Published numerous articles in his ADR career including "The Layered Dispute Resolution Clause: From Boilerplate to Business Opportunity" in the Hastings B. L. Journal; "UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Conciliation" in Pepperdine's ADR Journal; and "Mediation: Through the Eyes of the Mediator, featured on www.mediate.com in April of 2003.</li> <li>Additionally, he was a Program Faulty/Trainer, International Trademark Association, Mediation Continuing Education and a Visiting Scholar for the UN Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) in Vienna, Austria.</li> </ul>
HOBBIES & INTERESTS	In his spare time, Rob enjoys baseball, running marathons, traveling, brewing fine craft ales and drinking fine wines, and the arts.
LOCATIONS	Orange County, Nationwide